THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

August 9, 1975

Dear Bill:

I am writing to express my appreciation and thanks to you for having loaned us [redacted] to organize the Inter-Agency Task Force on Indochina Refugees. When we first set up the Task Force I sought a professional who would be able to cut his way through the morass of our bureaucracy quickly and efficiently to organize an operation unique in our history. [redacted] knowledge of the bureaucracy, his energy and his organizational talents made him the man for the job. He was indispensable from the beginning, first with Dean Brown, and then with Julia Taft.
